NOTE: This handbook is a fictional sample created for demonstration and testing purposes only. Nexora Technologies Pvt. Ltd. is not a real company. This is Part 3 of 3. See Part 1 for Sections 1-5 and Part 2 for Sections 6-9.

CONTENTS OF THIS PART

- 10. Grievance Redressal and Disciplinary Process
- 11. Travel and Expense Reimbursement
- 12. Information Security and Acceptable Use
- 13. Separation and Full and Final Settlement
- 14. Contact Information and Policy Amendments

10.1 Grievance Redressal

Employees who have a work-related concern (other than sexual harassment, which is handled under Section 9) may raise it through the following three levels:

- Level 1 - Reporting Manager: Raise the concern verbally or in writing. The manager will respond within five (5) working days.
- Level 2 - HR Business Partner: If unresolved, or if the concern involves the manager, escalate to the HRBP, who will respond within seven (7) working days.
- Level 3 - Grievance Committee: A committee of the Head of HR and two senior leaders will review the matter and issue a decision within fifteen (15) working days. The committee's decision is final.

10.2 Whistleblower Protection

Employees may report suspected fraud, legal violations or serious misconduct confidentially at ethics@nexora-tech.example. The Company prohibits retaliation against anyone reporting in good faith.

10.3 Disciplinary Actions

Depending on the seriousness of the misconduct, the Company may take one or more of the following actions:

- (a) Verbal warning
- (b) Written warning
- (c) Withholding of increment or promotion
- (d) Suspension with or without pay, pending inquiry
- (e) Termination of employment

Misconduct that may lead to immediate termination includes theft, fraud, falsification of records, violence, sexual harassment, serious breach of confidentiality and repeated unauthorised absence.

10.4 Right to Be Heard

Before any major disciplinary action (suspension or termination for misconduct), the employee will be given a written show-cause notice and at least five (5) working days to respond. A domestic inquiry may be conducted where required.

11. TRAVEL AND EXPENSE REIMBURSEMENT

11.1 Approval

All business travel must be approved by the reporting manager in advance through the expense portal. Travel that has not been pre-approved may not be reimbursed.

12.1 Company Assets

Laptops, phones, access cards and other equipment issued by the Company remain the property of Nexora. They must be used primarily for business purposes and returned in good condition on separation. Loss or theft must be reported to IT Support within 24 hours. Employees may be held liable for loss or damage caused by negligence.

12.2 Passwords and Access

Employees must use strong passwords of at least 12 characters and enable multi-factor authentication (MFA) on all Company accounts. Passwords must never be shared. Passwords must be changed every 90 days.

12.3 Data Handling

Confidential and client data must be stored only on Company-approved systems. Use of personal email, personal cloud storage (such as personal Google Drive or Dropbox) and unapproved USB devices to store or transfer Company data is prohibited.

12.4 Use of Generative AI Tools

Employees may use only Company-approved generative AI tools for work. Client data, source code, personal data of employees and any other confidential information must never be entered into public or unapproved AI tools. Output generated by AI tools must be reviewed by the employee before use, and the employee remains responsible for its accuracy.

12.5 Incident Reporting

Any suspected security incident, such as a phishing email, malware infection or unauthorised access, must be reported to security@nexora-tech.example within two (2) hours of discovery.

12.6 Monitoring

The Company reserves the right to monitor the use of its systems, networks and devices to the extent permitted by law, to ensure security and compliance. Employees should have no expectation of privacy on Company systems.

13. SEPARATION AND FULL AND FINAL SETTLEMENT

13.1 Resignation

An employee wishing to resign must submit a written resignation through PeopleHub to the reporting manager and HR. The Company will confirm the last working day in writing within five (5) working days of receiving the resignation.

13.2 Exit Process

Before the last working day, the employee must complete a knowledge transfer, return all Company assets, clear pending expense claims and attend an exit interview with HR. The employee's system access is disabled at the end of the last working day.

13.3 Full and Final (F&F) Settlement

The F&F settlement includes pending salary, leave encashment (Section 4.5), gratuity (if eligible), and any other dues, less recoveries such as notice period shortfall, unreturned assets, unrecovered advances and any training cost repayments. The settlement will be processed within 45 days of the last working day.

13.4 Documents Issued at Exit

On completion of the F&F process, the Company will issue a relieving letter and an experience letter. Form 16 will be issued as per the income tax timelines. Relieving and experience letters may be withheld if the employee has not completed the exit formalities or has left without serving the notice period.

13.5 Termination by the Company

The Company may terminate an employee's service with notice or pay in lieu of notice as per Section 3.3, or without notice in cases of gross misconduct as described in Section 10.3. Redundancy or restructuring-related separations will be handled as per applicable law, including severance as required.

13.6 Rehire Policy

Former employees who left in good standing may be considered for re-employment after a cooling-off period of six (6) months. Employees who were terminated 185 for misconduct are not eligible for rehire.
